- lot bid upon, then such lot shall be deemed to have been sold to the bidder at such bid;
6. Acknowledges and understands, notwithstanding the contents of paragraph 4 above, that should his/her bid be the highest bid on any lot, he/she will automatically enter a sale agreement as outlined in the Rules of Auction, which agreement cannot be amended in any way and the bidder acknowledges to have acquainted himself/herself therewith;
 7. Warrants, in the event that he/she is bidding on behalf of another person/company/close corporation or trust, that he/she has all necessary authority to do so and to bind such party to any consequent sale and will produce written proof of such authority upon request.
 8. Acknowledges that in the event of the Auctioneer declaring a bid to have been knocked down, such declaration shall be deemed to constitute the fall of the hammer and the bidder shall be liable for performance.
 9. The Auctioneer will take all reasonable steps to comply with the requirements of a virtual/electronic auction but it cannot be held liable for any damage (direct or indirect) insofar as it may be found that any such damage has been suffered by the bidder as a result of any non-compliance with these requirements and neither the AGENT's negligence nor gross negligence shall found such a claim.
 10. All vehicles are sold strictly voetstoots. High Street gives no warranties and makes no further representations as to the condition of the vehicle.
 11. The Parties acknowledge that the auction will be conducted in accordance with Regulation 30 to the CPA and that the auction will meet all the requirements of auction sales duly amended so as to apply to a virtual/electronic platform with:
 - The relevant platform has been available to anyone over the age of 18 years;
 - The platform provides industry level standards of security for electronic transactions;
 - The platform provides for easy access to all records prescribed in the Regulations in a generally used or accepted medium or format;
 12. Each and every lot will be sold as is, with no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. All information regarding the lots in the catalogue are statements of opinion only and shall never imply any guarantees as to the correctness of any information supplied either verbally or in writing about any lot. The buyer is responsible for acquainting him/herself with the vehicle and/or lot information, including but not limited to VIN Number, Code 2, 3, or 4, and the condition of the vehicle/s.
 13. The Auctioneer may require the execution of documents to be performed by means of electronic signature and/or contemporaneous remote view together with the exchange of documents to be performed by electronic means (such as scanning and emailing).
